Direct Trolley service to PETCO Park and Snapdragon

San Diego: It's playoff season in San Diego this weekend! A highly anticipated playoff series will continue this Friday, October 14, and Saturday, October 15 as the San Diego Padres and the Los Angeles Dodgers go head-to-head at PETCO Park for their third and fourth games of the National League Division Series. Then, on Sunday, October 16, the San Diego Wave Fútbol Club will play their first playoff game against the Chicago Red Stars at Snapdragon Stadium. PETCO Park and Snapdragon Stadium are expected to be at full capacity, and the Metropolitan Transit System (MTS) will provide extra Trolley service on all three Trolley lines to accommodate crowds.

Getting to PETCO for Padres vs Dodgers:

Padres Discount Promo: MTS will offer a special discounted 2-Day Padres Pass for Friday and Saturday.

- Fans heading to Downtown can get all-day transit service Friday and Saturday for $8 (a $12 value / 33% discount). The pass is now available through the PRONTO app, online at RidePRONTO.com, and will be available at ticket machines starting Friday.

Friday game starts at 5:37 p.m. and Saturday game starts at 6:37 p.m.

All three MTS Trolley lines provide direct access to PETCO Park. Fans can use the 12th & Imperial Transit Center, Gaslamp Quarter Station for convenient access to the game. People heading to downtown for the festivities should expect limited parking and added traffic. Free Park & Ride lots along Trolley stations offer an easy and stress-free game day commute.
