Even with the COVID-19 outbreak causing significant ridership declines, MTS buses and Trolleys are still carrying about 100,000 trips each weekday, demonstrating that transit is an essential service for essential workers.

And as we've seen and heard from so many riders during this time, the dedication and effort from our employees to continue to provide safe transit service does not go unnoticed.

Watch the video to meet a few of our employees who are keeping San Diego moving during this time.
