Veterans Day Boat Parade

The Fleet Week Boat Parade will feature boats of all sizes decorated to salute and honor Veterans and Members of the U.S. Military. The parade will take place on San Diego Bay, on Veterans Day 11 November starting at 12:00 pm and proceed from Shelter Island under the beautiful skyline of Downtown San Diego and work its way up to the Coronado Bridge where it will cross the Bay and proceed south along the Coronado Shoreline. There will be live demonstrations by the Coast Guard as well as Skydiving events, vintage Aircraft Flyovers, and other attractions on the bay.

View the parade from the shore of Shelter Island, Harbor Island, San Diego Embarcadero, Seaport Village, and Coronado Tidelands Park.

How to get to the event using public transportation:

Attendees are encouraged to utilize San Diego Public Transit, such as the San Diego Trolley. All three trolley lines and several bus lines serve stations with parking lots so you can Park and Ride to the North Embarcadero area.

To get within a short walk of Harbor Drive, take the Green or Blue Line to the Santa Fe Depot station, or the Orange Line to the America Plaza station.
