Be My Neighbor Day 2023

Join KPBS for San Diego's first ever Be My Neighbor Day on Saturday, March 25 from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. at the KPBS station on the San Diego State University campus. Be My Neighbor Day is a free outdoor event for young children and families to celebrate caring for one another and the environment around us.

Be My Neighbor Day will include the following entertaining and educational activities:

- Interactive displays and hands-on activities with community neighbors dedicated to protecting the planet
- Nature Walk with Sustainable SDSU
- Family volunteer crafts
- Fun with the PNC Grow Up Great® Mobile Learning Adventure
- And of course, special appearances by PBS KIDS' beloved friend, Daniel Tiger!

All attendees will receive a KPBS KIDS giveaway, as well as resources on how to be a caring and environmentally-responsible neighbor!

How to get there:

Park and Ride at one of our stations and then hop on the Trolley to the SDSU Transit Center off the Green Line. For bus routes, you can take Route 11, 115, Rapid 215, 856, 936, or 955 to the SDSU Transit Center. Be sure to use the MTS Trip Planner to get exact directions from your location to the event.
