ENVZN 23: Urban Art Takeover

ENVZN23 Urban Art Takeover is a one-of-a-kind visual & performing arts festival that will transform numerous warehouses, industrial spaces, and other urban areas of the Commercial Street corridor in Logan Heights with multi-sensory art interventions by creatives from both sides of the U.S./Mexico border.

Visitors will experience live dance, puppetry, theater and musical performances on warehouse loading docks, a fashion show by Fashion Week San Diego in an industrial storage lot, art installations with curated soundscapes by Tijuana-based multimedia artist MALU, a mini film festival inside a crossfit gym, delicious food and drink by local vendors, and much more. ENVZN23 will use design concepts to respond to the urban landscape by integrating curated sound and theatrical lighting design throughout.

- 5:00 p.m. – 6:00 p.m. VIP Behind-the-Scenes Wine + Culinary Experience
- 6:00pm – 10:00 p.m. Art Exhibitions, Food & Drink Vendors & Cultural Program.
- Curate your own experience! Programming will change every 30 minutes at each venue so that visitors can design their preferred visual & performing arts lineup.

This is an all-ages event. Food & Beverages will be available for purchase.
