Chinese New Year Fair

Since 1935, the House of China has brought the beauty of Chinese culture to San Diego located at the International Cottages Balboa Park. Our annual Chinese New Year Fair is a time-honored tradition that brings together families and communities to celebrate with performances, food, and cultural displays.

The Chinese New Year Fair is more than just an event; it's a cultural bridge that connects generations and communities. It provides an opportunity for families to come together, for younger generations to learn about their heritage, and for the wider community to experience the richness of Chinese culture. From traditional performances to cultural displays, the fair is a vibrant showcase of what makes Chinese culture so unique and enduring.
