Zero Waste Symposium

Join Zero Waste San Diego virtually or in-person for our signature annual event focused on solutions - the 12th Annual Zero Waste Symposium on February 26, 2025. This year's theme, Back to the Future of Zero Waste: Lessons from Our Past Informing Our Path Forward promises an inspiring day where attendees will hear the latest from industry innovators and connect with like-minded professionals.

What can I expect at the symposium?

- * Expert panels and presentations on cutting-edge topics related to the circular economy, zero waste solutions, policy updates, and more
- * A dedicated space for organizations to exhibit their sustainable products and services
- * Plentiful networking opportunities to meet fellow attendees and featured speakers
- * An After Hours Happy Hour Reception to cap off the event

Whether you join us online or in San Diego, we welcome individuals and groups eager to learn and make an impact through waste reduction efforts and circular thinking.
