San Diego Short Film Festival

Experience the power of storytelling through the art of filmmaking, where creativity knows no bounds and diverse voices find expression. Join us at the San Diego Short Film Festival to celebrate the magic of cinema.

With a focus on creativity and innovation, the San Diego Short Film Festival aims to inspire and connect filmmakers, providing a platform for them to share their unique perspectives and creative visions with a global audience.

From thought-provoking dramas to captivating animations, the festival presents a rich tapestry of storytelling, offering a platform for emerging and established filmmakers to showcase their craft and connect with fellow film enthusiasts.

For tickets, schedule, and more information, visit the San Diego Short Film Festival website.

The Digital Gym is located just across the street from the Park & Market station. Take the UC San Diego Blue Line or Orange Line for easy access to the festival.
