Tuesday, July 2, 2019

The 4th of July is almost here and we're ready to get you to all the celebrations around San Diego.

Big Bay Boom – The largest display of fireworks in the county starts at 9pm. You can view the fireworks from around North San Diego Bay – but we'll have extra Trolley service on all 3 lines for prime access to spots around Seaport Village, County Center, the Convention Center and more. Old Town 4th of July – Enjoy a parade and celebrate Independence Day like they would have in the 1800s. The action goes from 11am-4pm.

Coronado Parade – The Coronado Independence Day Parade kicks off at 10am. Stick around to enjoy the Concert in the park at 4pm in Spreckels Park or even catch views of the Big Bay Boom from the island. Remember – Route 904 is free all summer long thanks to the City of Coronado!
