Thursday, June 1, 2017

Summer is the perfect time for San Diego families to explore more, for less! Every Saturday and Sunday, two children 12 and under ride MTS for free when accompanied by a paid adult.

Families can also make traveling easier by downloading the mobile ticketing app, Compass Cloud. Day Passes can be purchased in advance on the app, and stored for when you're ready to use them. Plus, get multiple tickets on one phone for the whole group!

Need some ideas of where to go? Below are a few family-friendly destinations:

- Ride the Green Line Trolley to the Convention Center Station to visit the New Children's Museum in downtown San Diego. Children can foster imagination, creativity and critical thinking through inventive and engaging experiences with contemporary art. thinkplaycreate.org
- Hop on the UC San Diego Blue Line to E Street, then catch the free shuttle to the Living Coast Discovery Center, where children can explore more than 20 exhibits and come nose-to-nose with local marine life, reptiles and more. thelivingcoast.org
- Whether you're headed to the San Diego Zoo, one of 17 museums or just want to smell the roses at one of the gardens, ride Rapid 215 to enjoy the beauty of Balboa Park. balboapark.org
- Do your kids have the need for speed? Trolley to the Barrio Logan Station to take a spin at K1 Speed! The indoor go-kart racing is perfect for kids 48" and taller. k1speed.com
