The B Building just received a fresh paint job and new logo

A new paint job on MTS Rail's B Building will go long way towards keeping the system looking fresh and polished. MTS Facilities Manager Rolando Montes, who actually helped paint the same building previously in 1990, oversaw the three-week project. The 28,375-square-foot building has gone from a dull white to a grey/charcoal/MTS red scheme. The building holds work space for more than 100 MTS employees in the Facilities, Stores and Revenue departments.
