A large rectangular area that has been replaced by a placeholder. It contains a thick gray border and a large gray 'X' drawn across the center, indicating that the original image is missing or cannot be displayed.

The ability to establish, grow, extend, and restore trust with all the stakeholders – customers, suppliers, and employees – is the critical leadership competency in the global economy. Trust is an economic driver and always impacts two measurable outcomes: speed and cost. Leading at the Speed of Trust course will provide the mindset, skillset and toolset that will measurably increase participant's ability to deliver results in the way that inspires trust. This work session will enable the participants to:

- Build own case for trust
- Increase personal credibility
- Behave in ways that inspire trust
- Align team with principles of high trust
- Make a positive contribution to the society
